

Mawrk Notes

Volume II, Issue III

2012-2013 Highlights

Discussions at last year's fall and spring Big Cheese Forums included:

- Campus-wide renovations, specifically Haffner dorm
- Scholarships and financial aid
- Campus finances – donations and allocations
- Interim presidency and long-term presidency

Resolutions presented and passed at last year's fall and spring plenary were:

- Increase in posting policy visibility
- Elimination of the mediation program liaison
- Collective dorm budget party fund
- Perry House transparency
- The reaffirmation of the SGA constitution
- Request for financial transparency
- Policy about release of Honor Board abstracts

Assembly members voted to endorse the Seven Sisters Constitution for the Seven Sisters Coalition and Coordinating Board

Reinstatement of weekly presentations at SGA meetings by appointed position

Welcome, class of 2017 and transfers! The SGA Executive Board looks forward to seeing you every Sunday at 7 PM in the Campus Center for weekly SGA meetings. We hope that you have a great year!

SGA Presents the Following Events

9/8 – First SGA Meeting, Campus Center Main Lounge, 7 PM

9/29 – Plenary, Goodhart Auditorium, 12:30 PM

9/7-9/8 – Bryn Mawr Leadership Orientation Workshop, TGH, 2 PM

9/8 – Nominations now open for elected positions

9/24 – Elections begin!

If you would like to have your SGA-sponsored event featured, email sarora@bmc!*

Fun Fact

All undergraduate students at Bryn Mawr College are members of the Self-Government Association, which was founded in 1892, making Bryn Mawr the first college with a self-governed student body.

BRYN MAWR

SELF GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

sga.blogs.brynmawr.edu

sga@brynmawr.edu