- Summary: SGA will notify the Representative Council no later than one week ahead of mandatory Rep-Co meetings.
- Representative Council members notify no later than 24 hours if they know they will be absent. They must name their proxy.
- A single Representative Council member or proxy cannot represent more than two people simultaneously.
- 30-minute limit to reach quorum.
- 15-minute limit to regain quorum if lost at any point.
- Failure to attend both meetings without notification and proxy will result in removal and subsequent election for successor.
 - Leaving halfway before the end of the meeting counts as an absence.
- Not going longer than 3 hours on any Rep-Co budget or plenary meeting.
 - Must reschedule to complete the meeting at a later date if going over.

AMO Storage:

- Beginning April 22nd @ 4pm in Canwyll House
- AMOs will reserve a one-hour slot between April 22nd and May 9th to bring their storage to Canwyll. There will be a sign-up sheet for AMOs.
 - Schedule will be released 4/14 at 9pm.
 - Any date that is covered by an SGA representative is up for grabs. You won't be able to get into the building if we aren't there, so make sure you sign up when we are!

Big Cheese:

- April 21st @ 5pm
- Invitees:
 - President Cadge
 - Dean Tomiko

- Tim Harte, Provost
- Cynthia Archer, Board of Trustees Chair
- Joanna Timmerman, Director of Access Services

SGA Newsletter:

- Community announcements to involve students in events and make them aware
- Would consolidate the amount of emails people get
- Think of it like a student version of The Lantern or Daily Digest!

Advocacy Fellowship Announcements:

- Meeting with admin to share the proposal in plenary
- More updates on Sunday once the meeting has occurred!

Community Comments:

- No meeting next week due to religious holidays.
